Law Day Message: Celebrate your Freedom

The pursuit of freedom and the resolve to fight for it created America. As the citadel of freedom for over 200 years, the existence of those freedoms continues to be the basis of America's strength.

Since our inception as a nation, our freedoms have been guaranteed through vigilant enforcement of the heart and spirit of all American law: The Constitution and the Bill of Rights. We in the military community participate in that vigilant enforcement by undertaking the task described in the Constitution's Preamble as, "Providing for the common defense." The sacrifices made for that vigilant enforcement are real. Whether in times of war or peace, the price is paid in blood, sweat, and tears. As service members endure the daily rigors of military life, and as many families in the Stuttgart area experience extended periods of separation from their loved ones as they are deployed to dangerous operations in varied and far-reaching locations, we are reminded that to some degree that price must continue to be paid.

May 1 marks the 41st annual nationwide observance of Law Day. I hope that each of you will embrace this opportunity to commemorate the role that freedom plays in our lives, and to reflect on the sacrifices made to protect these freedoms. (Col. Patrick Briceland, Commander, 6th Area Support Group)
